

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

THIRTEENTH YEAR. NO. 93.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1897.

TWO CENTS

A HIGH DEATH RATE.

Yellow Fever Almost as Virulent as In 1878.

A PHYSICIAN TO BE PROSECUTED.

He Failed to Report a Case to the Board of Health For Several Days. Police Guarding the School Building Which the Mob Partially Burned.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25.—Eminent doctors believe that the work of the board of health is productive of good results and that the fever is not spreading, but on the contrary is being confined to local. The death rate is in the neighborhood of 15 per cent. It was in 1878 16 per cent. Up to the present time the disease is about as virulent as it was in the last great epidemic New Orleans has had. One of the sensations of the day was the announcement that the board of health had decided to prosecute Dr. Monlusein for having failed to report a case of suspicious fever. In one of the morning papers a few days ago, Dr. Monlusein was quoted as saying that there was little if any fever in New Orleans and that the prevailing sickness was burmah, or sun fever, which he described as contagious or infectious and quite likely to be attended with about the mortality of yellow fever. Dr. Monlusein reported to the board of health the case of Miss Dreyfous, who, he said, was suffering with yellow fever. It was not long before this report was received that the board had to report the death of Miss Dreyfous. An investigation proved that Miss Dreyfous had taken sick about six days ago and that Dr. Monlusein had failed even to report the case as suspicious.

There were three deaths and nine new cases reported yesterday. Of the new cases that in the Wood family was developed where two cases already existed. The case of Miss McCallison is on one of the most prominent avenues of the city. No previous case has appeared on the street. Of the 90 odd cases in New Orleans from the beginning but four have been among the negro population. There are still several serious cases among those who are ill, but the board of health is daily discharging patients as cured. Mayor Flower ordered a force of police to guard the Beuregard school which a mob attempted to burn. Only a portion of the building was burned, and it is still possible to use the structure as a hospital for the treatment of yellow fever patients. The mayor said: A mob might threaten, but the city had decided on the location and all the threats could not deter him from his purpose to protect the Sisters of Charity and the surgeon who would be sent to the school to receive and care for yellow fever patients. In the meantime he said that he had summoned Chief of Police Gaston to the hall, and that he was determined that no effort or expenses should be spared in bringing to justice the men who had fired the building.

At Biloxi, Miss., Mayor H. L. Howard was taken down with the fever. He is overworked, having devoted his energies to fighting the fever. Acting Mayor Swetman is also sick. The reports from the sick are all favorable. Board of health there reports: Yellow fever cases to date, 75; under treatment, 42; total deaths, 16; new cases, 15.

At the Fontainebleau camp of detention 80 persons were admitted and 11 were discharged; total now in the camp, 432. At Mobile there were three new cases and three deaths; under treatment, 16. New cases at Edwards, 29; total to date, 133.

From Atlanta Surgeon Sawtelle reports as follows: Case reported doing well; no other case in town and no suspects on incoming trains.

WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS.

The Miners Return to Work and the Strike Is at an End.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 25.—The coroner's jury investigating the deaths of the Lattimer victims met and heard additional testimony. Charles Gasco, the schoolteacher, John Welsh, Stephen Charles, Daniel Ferry and other miners testified, but nothing new was adduced, with the exception of the statement made by Daniel Ferry that after the first volley was fired Deputy Wrought shot at a man on the railroad tracks. After a half dozen witnesses had been examined Coroner McKee closed the inquest and the jury retired. The jury will meet this evening to deliberate and decide upon a verdict. The Lehigh Valley Coal company's men at Jeanesville held a meeting and unanimously agreed to return to work next Tuesday. The company has made no concessions and the resumption at Jeanesville now puts an end to the strike.

It was the intention of General Gobin to order the withdrawal of part of the militia, but the rain interfered. Battery C of the artillery broke camp and started for Phoenixville and the Twelfth and Thirteenth regiments will leave today. The Governor's troop toured the region. The City troop of Philadelphia will return home next week. Lieutenant Fowler of the Ninth regiment was accidentally shot in the thigh while handling a revolver. All was quiet in the region.

AID FOR STRIKERS.

The District Board Issues an Appeal For the Idle Miners.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 25.—The district executive board of the United Mine Workers, after a two days' session, has issued a circular to the different mines in this district. Arrangements were also made for collecting money to keep up the fight at the mines where the 65-cent rate is not being paid.

The circular, after stating that there is about 1,200 men still on a strike for the district rate, asks that all the miners endorse the action of executive board, and that all disputes of a local nature be amicably settled and referred to the joint convention in December. They adopted the following resolution: "That an assessment of 10 per cent of all moneys earned by the miners at work be collected and used for the purpose of maintaining the idle until such time as scale rates can be obtained for them."

An appeal to the public and sympathizers with union labor to aid the miners has been issued as follows:

"Owing to the long time our miners have been idle there is yet starvation and destitution in a great many places, and there are still parts of the district that have not complied with the 65-cent rate for mining, and they have to be maintained in order to uphold the action taken at the national and district conventions lately held at Columbus and Pittsburgh. We pray that all may give as liberally as possible, and remember, 'those who give quickly, give twofold.'"

There is little change in the situation at the DeArmit mines. No new men came out of the Plum Creek or Oak Hill mines. The Sandy Creek mine is practically closed, as only five men are at work in the mine.

A SCALE FOR PENSIONS.

The Union Veteran Legion Adopts One. Officers Elected.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 25.—The national encampment of the Union Veteran Legion has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: National commander, Archibald Blakely Pittsburgh; senior vice commander, E. D. Spooner, Chicago; junior vice commander, William Baird, Lewiston, Me.; surgeon general, Dr. C. M. Savage, Columbus; quartermaster general, Thomas J. Hubbard, Baltimore; chaplain-in-chief, Rev. Charles L. Shergar, Wellsboro, Pa.

A resolution was adopted on the pension question. It provides the following scale: All persons who served over 90 days shall each receive $5 a month and 1 cent a day for the time they were in the service. The widows of officers and enlisted men who served three years and over, $12 a month; widows of those serving over two and under three years, $10 a month; widows of those serving over 90 days and under two years, $8 a month.

The next encampment will be held in the city of Williamsport on the second Wednesday in September.

A resolution was adopted expressing the greatest sympathy with the struggling Cubans, and urging that the president of the United States "take such action as may be necessary to cause a speedy stoppage of the outrages, and that all the aid and comfort that may be possible, under the dictates of the brotherhood of man and the laws of nations, may be afforded the insurgents of Cuba, and that right speedily."

SAVED BY THE CAPTAIN.

His Heroic Actions Prevents Loss of Vessel and Crew.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—The heroic actions of Captain Blizzard of the steam tug C. W. Morse, which reached the Delaware breakwater with the barge Western Belle, which has six feet of water in her hold and leaking badly, saved that craft from total destruction and her crew from a watery grave.

In tow of the Morse, the Western Belle, Captain Task, for Providence, and the Forest Belle, for New Bedford, left Norfolk on Wednesday, and the same night, when hardly across the Chesapeake bay, heavy gales were experienced which culminated on Thursday in a northeast hurricane and the Western Belle sprang a leak.

Captain Blizzard succeeded in anchoring the Forest Belle under the land and with all possible speed headed for the capes and succeeded in anchoring the leaky craft in harbor. Later the C. W. Morse put off to sea for the Forest Belle, which she will tow to her destination.

May Not Have a Conference.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—It is said here that the United States intends to insist upon the presence of Russian and Japanese experts at the conference at Washington regarding the preservation of seal life, and as the Canadian government is opposed to that and want the inquiry confined to experts who have studied the question, the conference may not take place.

The Luetgert Trial.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The testimony for the defense in the Luetgert trial was for the most part that of witnesses who said that they had seen Mrs. Luetgert in the vicinity of Kenosha, Wis., within a few days after the date on which it has been claimed by the state that she was murdered.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW.

Foreign Gold Begins to Pour Into Uncle Sam's Coffers.

BIG GRAIN MOVEMENT CONTINUES.

Increased Volume in the Iron Trade Pushes Up Prices Another Notch—Mills Unable to Fill Demands—Settlement of Labor Troubles Help.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade issued today says: Gold imports have begun direct from England and from France, besides the arrival of $4,000,000 at San Francisco from Australia for wheat exported. The gold received there and started for Europe amounts to $6,500,000 in two days, and the advance of its rates by the Bank of America to 2 1/2 per cent seems little likely to check the movement in view of heavy merchandise balances due to this country and a rise in the rate of interest here. The August excess of merchandise and specie exports over imports was not far from $42,000,000 and the September excess will evidently be larger unless shipments of gold are considerable.

Produce markets have been uncertain, closing a fraction higher for both wheat and corn, while the decline in cotton continues. The total estimated crop credited by the trade is only 1,750,000,000 bushels, but is coupled with figures tending to show a surplus from the last crop of 400,000,000 bushels over ordinary consumption. Were this quite believed the price would not be rising, although exports continue heavy, in three weeks 9,927,849 bushels against 6,150,187 last year. Wheat has gained a fraction for the week, while Atlantic exports, flour included, for three weeks have been 12,498,181 bushels, against 6,183,743 last year.

The official ending of the western coal strike adds many thousands men to the working force in the mines and others in manufactures using bituminous coal. The anthracite strike has substantially ended, and no extensive labor disturbance is threatened. The output of coke is 125,000 tons and the price is also advanced.

Some branches of the iron industry are clearly no longer able to keep up with their new orders. Others are very fully employed for some months ahead, and with all the demand is increasing. Heavy buying has raised Bessemer pig at Pittsburgh to $10.50 and Grey forge to $9.50, with actual sales of 10,000 tons southern pig in the Mahoning valley for $8.75 at Birmingham. Billets are quoted at $16.25 and $22 has been refused for wire rods. The structural work is behind orders, the tinplate mills are hindered by failure to get sheet bars delivered fast enough, plate and sheet mills find heavy demand everywhere, and bars are in great demand for cars at the west; with vastly improved demand and a shade better prices at the east. The average advance of iron and steel products from the lowest point is 8.2 per cent.

Wool sales at Boston have decreased a quarter, but manufacturers are still unable to find profits in goods with wool at present prices. Reported sales of wool are more than double those of the most prosperous years. The cotton mills are doing a large business, although recent buying of goods has naturally decreased after the recent rush.

Failures for the week have been 209 in the United States, against 315 last year and 28 in Canada, against 39 last year.

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Many Miners Injured in an Illinois Coal Mine.

MARION, Ills., Sept. 25.—One man was killed, three were fatally injured and six were severely burned and bruised by an explosion of gas in the Williamson county coal mines. An unknown man is still imprisoned in the shaft and was undoubtedly instantly killed.

The gas which caused the explosion accumulated during the night near the mouth of the main shaft. A shift of 45 men went down in the cage. They had proceeded only a short distance up the main gangway when the lamp on the leader's cap ignited a large body of gas. A terrible explosion resulted.

Those who were able to crawl back to the foot of the shaft signaled for the cage, which had been blown to the surface by the force of the explosion. Rescuers descended, and soon all the injured men were raised to the surface. Afterdamp followed the explosion and put a stop to the search for the body of the unknown miner, who was, no doubt, instantly killed.

ARBITRATOR SELECTED.

The Umpire in the Venezuelan Boundary Dispute Decided Upon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A final decision has been reached by the arbitrators who are to determine the British Guiana-Venezuelan boundary line as to the fifth arbitrator or umpire, who is to act with them. His name is for the present withheld. It is not Baron Courcel, whose name has been mentioned in this connection, nor King Oscar of Sweden, who was to name the umpire only in case the arbitrators failed to agree. An agreement was reached without the necessity of calling on the Swedish sovereign.

The umpire is an European, but this is said to be without significance since no question involving the Monroe doctrine is to be submitted to the tribunal. The arbitrators in behalf of Venezuela are Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court.

Rejected the Columbus Scale.

STREATOR, Ills., Sept. 25.—The striking coal miners of this district voted on the acceptance or rejection of the Columbus scale. The result of the vote was a unanimous demand for the scale adopted by the Springfield convention, 48 cents per ton gross weight. The operators have refused to pay this price, and this vote means that the miners of the Northern Illinois district will probably remain idle all winter. The citizens' relief committee has announced that it can give the strikers no more aid.

Argonauts Leave for Klondike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Twelve argonauts from Massachusetts have left Chicago enroute to the Klondike. C. C. Elwood, a British Columbia mining expert, is at the head of the goldseekers.

DUTY URGED HIM TO DIE

Mexican Chief of Police Commits Suicide In a Cell.

HAD BEEN IN THE LYNCHING PLOT.

Valasquez, a Prominent Official Who Connived at the Killing of Diaz Assailant, Became Conscience Stricken—In a Letter to the Public He Sentences Himself.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 25.—Ex-Inspector General of Police Eduardo Valasquez, aged 32 years, lies a corpse, having taken his life in Belem prison at about half-past 9 o'clock. The inspector blew his brains out with a revolver. He was a proud man, exceedingly reserved, rarely being known to smile and very ambitious, his rise from a humble position through various posts to the command of the police having been sufficiently rapid to attract attention to him as a man of great talent.

Since the alleged lynching plot was exposed and he, with other police, was imprisoned, he has shown a marked change, being extremely reticent and evidently suffering from an intense nervous strain. He was subjected yesterday to a long examination by Judge Flores, and at the conclusion of that ordeal, on his return to his room in the prison, it was noted he showed great dejection and anguish of mind. He retired late, and at 11 o'clock in the morning the warden of the prison went to call him. The warden went to the bedside of Valasquez and said in a friendly tone, as he knew the prisoner well: "Fome, my boy, its time to get up; the judge wants you."

Receiving no answer he began to shake the inspector, saying: "Don't be lazy," when he noted that Valasquez had a bullet wound in the right temple, and on investigation further found a small two-barreled pistol with which the suicide had been committed.

The warden notified the judicial authorities, who went at once to the room of the suicide and summoned medical men. Judge Flores remarked that he had given the strictest orders to prevent Valasquez attempting suicide; that he had carefully watched him and every precaution was taken to keep weapons from him. At first the authorities were inclined to censure Colonel Campuzo, the warden. The doctors concluded that death must have been instantaneous, the bullet being imbedded in the brain. The body was delivered to relatives.

A letter was found in the room, in which he made his statements to the public, saying his death was, he felt the satisfaction he owed to society, and should, therefore, give that satisfaction by leaving the world. He also said that the crime was suggested by Inspector Villavicencio of the Second police district, who is in prison. Valasquez added that under other circumstances, not having been a high official authority, nothing could have induced him to take part in the crime. He felt, it is said, that his loyalty to the chief magistrate, whose life had been attempted, warranted him in putting Arroyo to death.

RETURNING FROM ALASKA.

Eighteen Men Killed by a Landslide in the Chilcoot Pass.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Sept. 25.—The tug Pioneer, which left Puget Sound on Sept. 13 with the bark Shirley in tow for Skaguay, has returned, having made the run in 96 hours. The Pioneer brings a report of a landslide which occurred near Sheep Camp on last Sunday morning in which 18 men are said to have lost their lives. Only one body is said to have been recovered. The men supposed to have been lost were packers on the Dyea trail.

They described the avalanche as consisting of rocks, ice and dirt which had been loosened by the recent unprecedented hard rain which has been falling continuously for the past month. All the bridges on the Skaguay river have been washed out and the river is a raging torrent.

W. W. Sprague of Tacoma, who started eight weeks ago with a three years' outfit, returned from Skaguay on the schooner. The steamer Alki, a week overdue, has arrived. She carried a large list of men returning from Skaguay who were unable to cross the pass. The snow is six inches deep at Lake Bennett and three inches fell on the summit of Chilcoot pass Saturday.

THINKS HE WILL SUCCEED.

Peary Says He Is Confident of Finding the North Pole.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—Arctic Explorer Peary, who was in this city, said he will leave again for the north pole next July and find it or die in the attempt. His party will consist of a surgeon, possibly another white man, and a number of Esquimaux. The American Geographical society has assured $150,000 to meet expenses, and Lieutenant Peary has been given five years' leave of absence.

A new ship may be procured and the old Hope may be used. Mrs. Peary will not be in the party. The explorer is confident of achieving his life ambition. He thinks Andree will accomplish nothing, if he has not already perished.

An agreement was reached without the necessity of calling on the Swedish sovereign.

The umpire is an European, but this is said to be without significance since no question involving the Monroe doctrine is to be submitted to the tribunal. The arbitrators in behalf of Venezuela are Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court.

Rejected the Columbus Scale.

STREATOR, Ills., Sept. 25.—The striking coal miners of this district voted on the acceptance or rejection of the Columbus scale. The result of the vote was a unanimous demand for the scale adopted by the Springfield convention, 48 cents per ton gross weight. The operators have refused to pay this price, and this vote means that the miners of the Northern Illinois district will probably remain idle all winter. The citizens' relief committee has announced that it can give the strikers no more aid.

Argonauts Leave For Klondike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Twelve argonauts from Massachusetts have left Chicago enroute to the Klondike. C. C. Elwood, a British Columbia mining expert, is at the head of the goldseekers.

DUTY URGED HIM TO DIE

Mexican Chief of Police Commits Suicide In a Cell.

HAD BEEN IN THE LYNCHING PLOT.

Valasquez, a Prominent Official Who Convinced at the Killing of Diaz Assailant, Became Conscience Stricken—In a Letter to the Public He Sentences Himself.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 25.—Ex-Inspector General of Police Eduardo Velasquez, aged 32 years, lies a corpse, having taken his life in Belem prison at about half-past 9 o'clock. The inspector blew his brains out with a revolver. He was a proud man, exceedingly reserved, rarely being known to smile and very ambitious, his rise from a humble position through various posts to the command of the police having been sufficiently rapid to attract attention to him as a man of great talent.

Since the alleged lynching plot was exposed and he, with other police, was imprisoned, he has shown a marked change, being extremely reticent and evidently suffering from an intense nervous strain. He was subjected yesterday to a long examination by Judge Flores, and at the conclusion of that ordeal, on his return to his room in the prison, it was noted he showed great dejection and anguish of mind. He retired late, and at 11 o'clock in the morning the warden of the prison went to call him. The warden went to the bedside of Velasquez and said in a friendly tone, as he knew the prisoner well: "Fome, my boy, its time to get up; the judge wants you."

Receiving no answer he began to shake the inspector, saying: "Don't be lazy," when he noted that Velasquez had a bullet wound in the right temple, and on investigation further found a small two-barreled pistol with which the suicide had been committed.

The warden notified the judicial authorities, who went at once to the room of the suicide and summoned medical men. Judge Flores remarked that he had given the strictest orders to prevent Velasquez attempting suicide; that he had carefully watched him and every precaution was taken to keep weapons from him. At first the authorities were inclined to censure Colonel Campuzo, the warden. The doctors concluded that death must have been instantaneous, the bullet being imbedded in the brain. The body was delivered to relatives.

A letter was found in the room, in which he made his statements to the public, saying his death was, he felt the satisfaction he owed to society, and should, therefore, give that satisfaction by leaving the world. He also said that the crime was suggested by Inspector Villavicencio of the Second police district, who is in prison. Velasquez added that under other circumstances, not having been a high official authority, nothing could have induced him to take part in the crime. He felt, it is said, that his loyalty to the chief magistrate, whose life had been attempted, warranted him in putting Arroyo to death.

RETURNING FROM ALASKA.

Eighteen Men Killed by a Landslide In the Chilcoat Pass.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Sept. 25.—The tug Pioneer, which left Puget Sound on Sept. 13 with the bark Shirley in tow for Skaguay, has returned, having made the run in 96 hours. The Pioneer brings a report of a landslide which occurred near Sheep Camp on last Sunday morning in which 18 men are said to have lost their lives. Only one body is said to have been recovered. The men supposed to have been lost were packers on the Dyea trail.

They described the avalanche as consisting of rocks, ice and dirt which had been loosened by the recent unprecedented hard rain which has been falling continuously for the past month. All the bridges on the Skaguay river have been washed out and the river is a raging torrent.

W. W. Sprague of Tacoma, who started eight weeks ago with a three years' outfit, returned from Skaguay on the schooner. The steamer Alki, a week overdue, has arrived. She carried a large list of men returning from Skaguay who were unable to cross the pass. The snow is six inches deep at Lake Bennett and three inches fell on the summit of Chilcoat pass Saturday.

THINKS HE WILL SUCCEED.

Peary Says He Is Confident of Finding the North Pole.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—Arctic Explorer Peary, who was in this city, said he will leave again for the north pole next July and find it or die in the attempt. His party will consist of a surgeon, possibly another white man, and a number of Esquimaux. The American Geographical society has assured $150,000 to meet expenses, and Lieutenant Peary has been given five years' leave of absence.

A new ship may be procured and the old Hope may be used. Mrs. Peary will not be in the party. The explorer is confident of achieving his life ambition. He thinks Andree will accomplish nothing, if he has not already perished.

LOST THE FIRST GAME

Monarchs Were Outplayed by New Castle.

TOO MANY EXPENSIVE FUMBLES

Spilled Our Chances For Winning What Might Otherwise Have Been a Good Contest—There Was Lively Playing at Times.

The football season was opened yesterday afternoon at Rock Spring before a small audience, and the Monarchs were defeated by New Castle by a score of 10 to 0 in two 15 minute halves. The local team plainly showed a lack of practice, and when they had the ball in their possession managed to lose it in short order on fumbles. The line was weak, and had it not been for the work of D. and T. McLane, McCurran and Carnahan the score would have been much larger.

Liverpool won the toss, and took the choice of field, giving the ball to New Castle. Nettle kicked to Liverpool's 15 yard line, and the ball was missed by the entire Monarch team, but D. McLane eventually succeeded in capturing it, and was downed in his tracks by Wayne. The Monarchs made no gains for two downs, but the umpire saved them from losing the ball by giving them 15 yards. The ball was lost on a fumble a few seconds later, and New Castle proceeded to do the same thing, while Liverpool was held for two downs and McCurran punted. The ball was caught by Nettle who immediately carried it back for a gain of 15 yards, and a few minutes later Klingsmith went around the right end for a touchdown, but Nettle failed to kick goal. The first half closed with the ball in New Castle's possession.

Little took Hester's place in the second half, and again McCurran kicked to the 15-yard line, but Hazen carried the ball to the center of the field before he was stopped by Stoffel. New Castle lined up quickly, and attempted to make a play before the Monarchs were in place, but D. McLane was watching, and got his man for the loss of five yards, but in the next play Nettle hit the center for a gain of 15 yards. After being shoved all over the field, Liverpool made a stand at the 20-yard line and succeeded in capturing the ball. They immediately fumbled it, but McLane fell on it for a loss of two yards. New Castle held them for three downs, when Empire Steele again gave Liverpool 15 yards for foul work, and donated the ball to New Castle.

They lost on a fumble and McLane captured it. The Monarchs proceeded to fumble, and New Castle once more had the pigskin. They went at it with a vim, and Tag McLane received a blow on the head and had to retire, Grafton taking his place. A short time later Klingsmith carried the ball around the right end for 20 yards, and Edmunds went around the left for a touchdown this time Nettle kicked goal.

In the kick off Nettle carried the ball to the center of the field, and Edmunds and Klingsmith carried the ball to Liverpool's ten yard line when Carnahan got hurt and the game was stopped three seconds before time. When it resumed Nettle attempted to kick goal from the field and the game was called. The score:

M'KINLEY'S WARM WELCOME.

The President Makes a Speech to the School Children.

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 25.—President and Mrs. McKinley, with other members of the party, who for the past four days have been visiting in Adams, have reached Lenox. There was an immense crowd about the station at Pittsfield to meet them, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. Cheer after cheer was given for the president and his wife when they appeared upon the platform. Hon. John Sloan, whose guest they were until today noon, welcomed them, and escorted Mr. and Mrs. McKinley to his own Victoria. In the first drag were Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. McKenna, Secretary and Mrs. Alger, Mayor Walter F. Hawkins of Pittsfield, Attorney General McKenna and Mr. W. B. Plunkett.

The driver started at once and led through the best portion of the town. The carriage was stopped in front of the park, which was filled with a struggling mass of young Americans anxious to see the only president who ever came to their town. Major McKinley, as he said afterward, never received such a joyous reception from the rising generation as he did at this time.

The tremendous enthusiasm of the school children, with his well-known love for children in general, were too much for the president, and he rose in his carriage and made a short address:

"I desire to express my appreciation of the gracious welcome which you have given me as I journey through your city on my way to Lenox. One of the most gratifying conditions to be found today is that splendid feeling of amity and friendship and fraternity existing in all sections of our country. These boys and these girls whom I have seen around me in such vast numbers today in a little while must take upon themselves the great duty of citizenship. We have today a union stronger and better and firmer than it ever was before, and if these young people continue lives of morality and virtue practiced in their youth they will be prepared to carry forward this greater nation to still greater glories. I thank you and bid you all good day."

When the Sloan house was reached they were ushered into the spacious and luxuriously furnished reception room, where the ladies were given light refreshments.

Before long a closed carriage was taken for the links of the Lenox Golf club, where the president was just in time to greet the winner of the Lenox cup tournament, Mr. Arthur H. Fenn of Aiken, S. C.

The president decided to leave here, and drove to Stockbridge, where the train was taken via Pittsfield to Adams, where the cornerstone of the Memorial library was laid by the president.

A Prominent Irish Minister Dead.

DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—The Rt. Hon. Robert Richard Warren, president of the probate and matrimonial division of the high court of justice, Ireland, is dead. He was born in 1817 and had been solicitor general for Ireland and also attorney general. He was a member of the general synod of the Church of Ireland and the author of "The Church of Ireland and Kingdom of Christ," "Laws of the Church of Ireland" and "Divorce and Remarriage."

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

Three Men, the Alleged Torturers of Farmer Dunlap, in Jail.

DAYTON, Sept. 25.—Marshal O. J. Whipp of Brookville caused the arrest here of John W. Klaiber, a bartender, on a warrant charging highway robbery. Van Cherk and William Walters were arrested at Miamisburg and brought here, also charged with the same crime. On the 18th of last May James Dunlap, an eccentric and wealthy farmer residing near Dodson Junction, was robbed of $1,000 in cash.

While asleep in his home in the daytime three men battered in the door with a log, and, entering, bound and gagged Dunlap, and, by placing fire to his bare feet, forced him to tell them the whereabouts of the money he had collected several days before. Dunlap was left bound and gagged, and a neighbor found him in a helpless condition. The three men under arrest are charged with the robbery last May. They were taken to Brookville for preliminary examination.

SETTLE IT IN COURT.

The Muddle of the Board of Supervisors in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—The muddle caused by the removal of four members of the board of supervisors, which threatened to involve a conflict between the mayor and the sheriff, has been practically cleared up by the withdrawal of the police from the office of the board.

The questions at issue will be submitted to the courts and the newly appointed members will either apply for a dismissal of the injunction warrant against them, or will institute quo warrant proceedings to ascertain their rights.

To Entertain Mayors and Congressmen.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 25.—A rate of one and a third for the round trip from all points of the country has been secured for delegates to the national congress of mayors and congressmen, which will meet here next Tuesday. The local press committee, through H. C. Barlow, is arranging for the entertainment of newspaper men who are invited to attend the congress.

The Bainbridge Fire Loss.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Sept. 25.—A careful estimate of the loss of life and property in the conflagration at Bainbridge shows 2 killed, 12 injured, but none fatally, and property valued at $59,700 totally destroyed. The insurance was only $1,500.

Frightened With a Gun.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Sept. 25.—Burglars made three separate attempts to enter the residence of George Rueppel, a prominent stock buyer. They were discovered each time by Mrs. Rueppel, who was alone in the house, and who frightened them away with a gun.

Killed by a Horse's Kick.

TIFFIN, O., Sept. 25.—Fred Gray, one of the wealthiest farmers of Seneca county, was kicked to death at Attica. His horse became frightened at some children playing in the road and kicked Gray over the heart.

STARTED FOR ST. MICHAELS.

A Government Party Has Left Seattle. Many Suggestions Received.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A telegram has been received at the war department from Lieutenant Randall at Seattle, Wash., announcing his departure on the steamer Humboldt for St. Michaels. The party consists of 32 men all told, including officers and men. All manner of suggestions, mostly more or less "cranky," are coming to the war department looking to the establishment of winter communication with Dawson. They include locomotives, patent sleds and elevated roads.

A Boston firm has come forward with what appears to be a practical offer to deliver a large quantity of food supplies at Dawson for a lump sum. They propose to make use of a new route, namely via Copper river, which lies well to the westward of Chilcot pass, and assert that this passage is far superior in point of practicability for horses than any other.

Issue Over Fear of Lynching.

COLUMBUS, Kan., Sept. 25.—Ed Staffebaker, one of the notorious family of murderers in jail here, has gone stark mad through fear of lynching at the hands of a mob. He is convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of Frank Galbraith, one of the several persons supposed to have been murdered in the den of the Staffebakers at Galena, this county. The constant talk of lynching heard caused him to become a raving maniac. He is confined in a straightjacket.

Thieves Looted the Town.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Thieves entered the little town of Hurricane, in Putnam county, and literally cleaned out the place. Every store in the town was robbed, also a flouring mill, and five safes were blown open. The robbers secured a big sum of money and many valuables and made their escape. The whole countryside is excited. Bloodhounds have been put on the trail of the robbers.

Secretary Tracey Accepts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Chairman Quigg of the Republican county committee has received a telegram from General Benjamin F. Tracey stating that he was willing to be the Republican nominee for mayor of the Greater New York.

Peace in Uruguay.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A cablegram received at the state department from United States Minister Stuart at Montevideo announces the proclamation of peace there.

A Hearing to the Brewers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Commissioner Forman of the internal revenue bureau gave a hearing to counsel for the United States Brewers' association in opposition to the collection of the 7½ per cent rebate on beer stamps sold after midnight of Friday July 23, 1897, the time, as held by the secretary of the treasury, when the new tariff act went into effect. The association was represented by Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, commissioner of patents. Pending a decision from the courts the commissioner said the collection of rebates would not be insisted upon.

Bid For Timber Accepted.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The department of the interior has accepted the bid of Frederick L. Gilbert for all the timber on Red Cliff, Chippewa Indian reservation, in Wisconsin. It is estimated that the timber amounted to 100,000,000 feet, and Mr. Gilbert's bid $416,000. The conditions of the sale provide that Mr. Gilbert shall establish mills on the reservation and that he shall employ Indian labor when practicable to do so.

No Labor Convention.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Secretary Kelliher of the Social Democracy said that the Social Democracy would take no part in the proposed convention of labor representatives, which was to have been held in Chicago in the interests of the striking coal miners, and that word had been sent to all its delegates to remain away. It is now practically settled that the convention will not be held.

Murdered by Her Lover.

GAS CITY, Ind., Sept. 25.—Noah Johnson, aged 33, waylaid Miss Tacy Mang, aged 16, on her way to school, and, slipping up behind her, blew out her brains. They were lovers and had a quarrel. Johnson fled with all speed to this city, ten miles away, and surrendered to the authorities. He was hurried to Marion to jail and a mob talks of lynching.

Fainted Over the Verdict.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 25.—The case of Robert T. Hibbard, the young man who was on trial at May's Landing for shooting Mrs. Phoebe Phillips, in this city on Decoration day, and who was married to the woman he attempted to murder in the jail here, resulted in a verdict of acquittal. Mrs. Hibbard, nee Phillips, fainted when the verdict was announced.

Street Car Men to Strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Developments of the last 12 hours point to a general strike of street car conductors, motor men and gr men in the employ of the Chicago City Railway company on Monday morning. A general mass-meeting of all the street car men of the city has been called for 1 o'clock Sunday morning to take final action.

Died of Hydrophobia.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 25.—Wilhe Kordan, aged 10 years, one of 11 boys who were bitten by a mad bulldog in West Scranton last March, has died from what the physicians diagnosed as unmistakable hydrophobia. Death was marked by intense suffering, the boy in his agony biting his mother. This is the second death, Tommie Bevan dying in April.

It takes a man who is a whole man, at least physically, to be a western cow-boy. His every-day life calls for great physical endurance, and upon some occasions this must also be backed by considerable nerve.

It would be a good thing for many a hard working business man if he could turn cow-boy for a couple of months each year. It would give him a chance to get the free, pure, invigorating air of the prairie into his lungs, a little steel into his muscles, a little edge to his appetite and a little of the calm of the boundless plains into his nerves.

Unfortunately, the rush of modern business will not permit the average hard working business man to turn cow-boy even for a short time each year. The only resource left him, if he does not wish to break down prematurely, is to keep a watchful eye upon his health, and when he finds that he is getting out of sorts, let up a little on work, and resort to the best of all known tonics. That tonic is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It promptly puts a worked out man into condition, because it starts at the right place. It begins by restoring the lost appetite. It corrects all disorders of the digestion and makes the assimilation of the food perfect. It invigorates the liver. It purifies the blood and fills it with the life-giving elements of the food. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. By enriching the blood it nourishes and builds up every organ and tissue in the body. No man ever broke down with nervous exhaustion or prostration who resorted to this great medicine when he felt himself threatened by ill-health.

An honest dealer will not urge a substitute. There is nothing in the world "just as good," although avaricious druggists will sometimes say so for the sake of the greater profit to be made upon the inferior article.

Keep your head up and your bowels open. The "Golden Medical Discovery" will put steel in your backbone, and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure constipation.

DON'T GO IT BLIND.

No Need for Guess Work—Follow the Advice of People We Know.

A Scotch ploughman working in a field was accosted by two college dons, who, walking along the road, had disagreed on some topic about the dead languages. Agreeing to leave it to the yokel to decide, they introduced the disputed point with "Is Greek a hard language to read?" To their surprise the answer came, "I don't know; I never tried it." Such caution, such prudence, such wariness may have been all right coming from a Scotchman, but it would have been utterly out of place if Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, had exhibited it when advised by her sister to use a well-tried remedy for her complaint. It is the same with East Liverpool. Caution, prudence or wariness is quite unnecessary when you have to use a kidney remedy. All that is required is simply to follow the advice of people you know. No need to go it blind. Read this. Mrs. Orr says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting me, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had been having a severe attack of kidney disease; sometimes I would be so bad I could not get up. Many times my neighbors have come in and found me lying on the lounge suffering, when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills, I made up my mind to take some, and got a box at W. & W. Pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly, and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses, and now she is looking splendidly."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

New Castle lined up quickly, and attempted to make a play before the Monarchs were in place, but D. McLane was watching, and got his man for the loss of five yards, but in the next play Nettle hit the center for a gain of 15 yards. After being shoved all over the field, Liverpool made a stand at the 20-yard line and succeeded in capturing the ball. They immediately fumbled it, but McLane fell on it for a loss of two yards. New Castle held them for three downs, when Empire Steele again gave Liverpool 15 yards for foul work, and donated the ball to New Castle.

They lost on a fumble and McLane captured it. The Monarchs proceeded to fumble, and New Castle once more had the pigskin. They went at it with a vim, and Tag McLane received a blow on the head and had to retire, Grafton taking his place. A short time later Klingsmith carried the ball around the right end for 20 yards, and Edmunds went around the left for a touchdown this time Nettle kicked goal.

In the kick off Nettle carried the ball to the center of the field, and Edmunds and Klingsmith carried the ball to Liverpool's ten yard line when Carnahan got hurt and the game was stopped three seconds before time. When it resumed Nettle attempted to kick goal from the field and the game was called. The score:

A Valuable Trunk.

A trunk was sent from this city last evening on the 7:15 train, whose value was not less than $2,500. The trunk was of medium size, but the fact that it contained some fine jewelry made its value mount higher.

Settle Your Claims.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Ferguson & Hill, will please call and settle said claims, not later than October 1.

M'KINLEY'S WARM WELCOME.

The President Makes a Speech to the School Children.

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 25.—President and Mrs. McKinley, with other members of the party, who for the past four days have been visiting in Adams, have reached Lenox. There was an immense crowd about the station at Pittsfield to meet them, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. Cheer after cheer was given for the president and his wife when they appeared upon the platform. Hon. John Sloan, whose guest they were until today noon, welcomed them, and escorted Mr. and Mrs. McKinley to his own Victoria. In the first drag were Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. McKenna, Secretary and Mrs. Alger, Mayor Walter F. Hawkins of Pittsfield, Attorney General McKenna and Mr. W. B. Plunkett.

The driver started at once and led through the best portion of the town. The carriage was stopped in front of the park, which was filled with a struggling mass of young Americans anxious to see the only president who ever came to their town. Major McKinley, as he said afterward, never received such a joyous reception from the rising generation as he did at this time.

The tremendous enthusiasm of the school children, with his well-known love for children in general, were too much for the president, and he rose in his carriage and made a short address:

"I desire to express my appreciation of the gracious welcome which you have given me as I journey through your city on my way to Lenox. One of the most gratifying conditions to be found today is that splendid feeling of amity and friendship and fraternity existing in all sections of our country. These boys and these girls whom I have seen around me in such vast numbers today in a little while must take upon themselves the great duty of citizenship. We have today a union stronger and better and firmer than it ever was before, and if these young people continue lives of morality and virtue practiced in their youth they will be prepared to carry forward this greater nation to still greater glories. I thank you and bid you all good day."

When the Sloan house was reached they were ushered into the spacious and luxuriously furnished reception room, where the ladies were given light refreshments.

Before long a closed carriage was taken for the links of the Lenox Golf club, where the president was just in time to greet the winner of the Lenox cup tournament, Mr. Arthur H. Fenn of Aiken, S. C.

The president decided to leave here, and drove to Stockbridge, where the train was taken via Pittsfield to Adams, where the cornerstone of the Memorial library was laid by the president.

A Prominent Irish Minister Dead.

DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—The Rt. Hon. Robert Richard Warren, president of the probate and matrimonial division of the high court of justice, Ireland, is dead. He was born in 1817 and had been solicitor general for Ireland and also attorney general. He was a member of the general synod of the Church of Ireland and the author of "The Church of Ireland and Kingdom of Christ," "Laws of the Church of Ireland" and "Divorce and Remarriage."

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

Three Men, the Alleged Torturers of Farmer Dunlap, in Jail.

DAYTON, Sept. 25.—Marshal O. J. Whipp of Brookville caused the arrest here of John W. Klaiber, a bartender, on a warrant charging highway robbery. Van Cherk and William Walters were arrested at Miamisburg and brought here, also charged with the same crime. On the 18th of last May James Dunlap, an eccentric and wealthy farmer residing near Dodson Junction, was robbed of $1,000 in cash.

While asleep in his home in the daytime three men battered in the door with a log, and, entering, bound and gagged Dunlap, and, by placing fire to his bare feet, forced him to tell them the whereabouts of the money he had collected several days before. Dunlap was left bound and gagged, and a neighbor found him in a helpless condition. The three men under arrest are charged with the robbery last May. They were taken to Brookville for preliminary examination.

SETTLE IT IN COURT.

The Muddle of the Board of Supervisors in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—The muddle caused by the removal of four members of the board of supervisors, which threatened to involve a conflict between the mayor and the sheriff, has been practically cleared up by the withdrawal of the police from the office of the board.

The questions at issue will be submitted to the courts and the newly appointed members will either apply for a dismissal of the injunction against them, or will institute quo warranto proceedings to ascertain their rights.

To Entertain Mayors and Congressmen.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 25.—A rate of one and a third for the round trip from all points of the country has been secured for delegates to the national congress of mayors and congressmen, which will meet here next Tuesday. The local press committee, through H. O. Barlow, is arranging for the entertainment of newspaper men who are invited to attend the congress.

The Bainbridge Fire Loss.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Sept. 25.—A careful estimate of the loss of life and property in the conflagration at Bainbridge shows 2 killed, 12 injured, but none fatally, and property valued at $59,700 totally destroyed. The insurance was only $1,500.

Frightened With a Gun.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Sept. 25.—Burglars made three separate attempts to enter the residence of George Rueppel, a prominent stock buyer. They were discovered each time by Mrs. Rueppel, who was alone in the house, and who frightened them away with a gun.

Killed by a Horse's Kick.

TIFFIN, O., Sept. 25.—Fred Gray, one of the wealthiest farmers of Seneca county, was kicked to death at Attica. His horse became frightened at some children playing in the road and kicked Gray over the heart.

STARTED FOR ST. MICHAELS.

A Government Party Has Left Seattle. Many Suggestions Received.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A telegram has been received at the war department from Lieutenant Randall at Seattle, Wash., announcing his departure on the steamer Humboldt for St. Michaels. The party consists of 32 men all told, including officers and men. All manner of suggestions, mostly more or less "cranky," are coming to the war department looking to the establishment of winter communication with Dawson. They include locomotives, patent sleds and elevated roads.

A Boston firm has come forward with what appears to be a practical offer to deliver a large quantity of food supplies at Dawson for a lump sum. They propose to make use of a new route, namely via Copper river, which lies well to the westward of Chilcoot pass, and assert that this passage is far superior in point of practicability for horses than any other.

Issue Over Fear of Lynching.

COLUMBUS, Kan., Sept. 25.—Ed Staffleback, one of the notorious family of murderers in jail here, has gone stark mad through fear of lynching at the hands of a mob. He is convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of Frank Galbraith, one of the several persons supposed to have been murdered in the den of the Stafflebacks at Galena, this county. The constant talk of lynching heard caused him to become a raving maniac. He is confined in a straightjacket.

Thieves Looted the Town.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Thieves entered the little town of Hurricane, in Putnam county, and literally cleaned out the place. Every store in the town was robbed, also a flouring mill, and five safes were blown open. The robbers secured a big sum of money and many valuables and made their escape. The whole countryside is excited. Bloodhounds have been put on the trail of the robbers.

Secretary Tracey Accepts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Chairman Quigg of the Republican county committee has received a telegram from General Benjamin F. Tracey stating that he was willing to be the Republican nominee for mayor of the Greater New York.

Peace in Uruguay.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A cablegram received at the state department from United States Minister Stuart at Montevideo announces the proclamation of peace there.

A Hearing to the Brewers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Commissioner Forman of the internal revenue bureau gave a hearing to counsel for the United States Brewers' association in opposition to the collection of the 7½ per cent rebate on beer stamps sold after midnight of Friday July 23, 1897, of the time, as held by the secretary of the treasury, when the new tariff act went into effect. The association was represented by Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, commissioner of patents. Pending a decision from the courts the commissioner said the collection of rebates would not be insisted upon.

Bid For Timber Accepted.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The department of the interior has accepted the bid of Frederick L. Gilbert for all the timber on Red Cliff, Chippewa Indian reservation, in Wisconsin. It is estimated that the timber amounted to 100,000,000 feet, and Mr. Gilbert's bid $416,000. The conditions of the sale provide that Mr. Gilbert shall establish mills on the reservation and that he shall employ Indian labor when practicable to do so.

No Labor Convention.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Secretary Kelliher of the Social Democracy said that the Social Democracy would take no part in the proposed convention of labor representatives, which was to have been held in Chicago in the interests of the striking coal miners, and that word had been sent to all its delegates to remain away. It is now practically settled that the convention will not be held.

Murdered by Her Lover.

GAS CITY, Ind., Sept. 25.—Noah Johnson, aged 33, waylaid Miss Tacy Mang, aged 16, on her way to school, and, slipping up behind her, blew out her brains. They were lovers and had a quarrel. Johnson fled with all speed to this city, ten miles away, and surrendered to the authorities. He was hurried to Marion to jail and a mob talks of lynching.

Fainted Over the Verdict.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 25.—The case of Robert T. Hibbard, the young man who was on trial at May's Landing for shooting Mrs. Phoebe Phillips, in this city on Decoration day, and who was married to the woman he attempted to murder in the jail here, resulted in a verdict of acquittal. Mrs. Hibbard, nee Phillips, fainted when the verdict was announced.

Street Car Men to Strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Developments of the last 12 hours point to a general strike of street car conductors, motor-men and gr. men in the employ of the Chicago City Railway company on Monday morning. A general mass-meeting of all the street car men of the city has been called for 1 o'clock Sunday morning to take final action.

Died of Hydrophobia.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 25.—Wilhe Kordan, aged 10 years, one of 11 boys who were bitten by a mad bulldog in West Scranton last March, has died from what the physicians diagnosed as unmitigated hydrophobia. Death was marked by intense suffering, the boy in his agony biting his mother. This is the second death, Tommie Bevan dying in April.

It takes a man who is a whole man, at least physically, to be a western cow-boy. His every-day life calls for great physical endurance, and upon some occasions this must also be backed by considerable nerve. It would be a good thing for many a hard working business man if he could turn cow-boy even for a short time each year. The only resource left him, if he does not wish to break down prematurely, is to keep a watchful eye upon his health, and when he finds that he is getting out of sorts, let up a little on work, and resort to the best of all known tonics. That tonic is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It promptly puts a worked out man into condition, because it starts at the right place. It begins by restoring the lost appetite. It corrects all disorders of the digestion and makes the assimilation of the food perfect. It invigorates the liver. It purifies the blood and fills it with the life-giving elements of the food. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. By enriching the blood it nourishes and builds up every organ and tissue in the body. No man ever broke down with nervous exhaustion or prostration who resorted to this great medicine when he felt himself threatened by ill-health.

An honest dealer will not urge a substitute. There is nothing in the world "just as good," although avaricious druggists will sometimes say so for the sake of the greater profit to be made upon the inferior article.

Keep your head up and your bowels open. The "Golden Medical Discovery" will put steel in your backbone, and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure constipation.

DON'T GO IT BLIND.

No Need for Guess Work—Follow the Advice of People We Know.

A Scotch ploughman working in a field was accosted by two college dons, who, walking along the road, had disagreed on some topic about the dead languages. Agreeing to leave it to the yokel to decide, they introduced the disputed point with "Is Greek a hard language to read?" To their surprise the answer came, "I don't know; I never tried it." Such caution, such prudence, such wariness may have been all right coming from a Scotchman, but it would have been utterly out of place if Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, had exhibited it when advised by her sister to use a well-tried remedy for her complaint. It is the same with East Liverpool. Caution, prudence or wariness is quite unnecessary when you have to use a kidney remedy. All that is required is simply to follow the advice of people you know. No need to go it blind. Read this. Mrs. Orr says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting me, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had been having a severe attack of kidney disease; sometimes I would be so bad I could not get up. Many times my neighbors have come in and found me lying on the lounge suffering, when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills, I made up my mind to take some, and got a box at W. & W. Pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly, and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses, and now she is looking splendidly."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

WELLSVILLE.

MAY NEVER BE SIGNED

That Contract For Heating the
West End School

CONTINUES TO BE ANNOYING

An Injunction Is Almost In Sight—What
the Big Engine Can Do—No Money For the Shops—A Strong Team—All the News
of Wellsville.

The contract for heating the West End school will not likely materialize. It is stated that the trouble already brought out has delayed the signing of the contract, and if it should be signed its enforcement will be hampered for the present by an injunction and the matter will be fought out in the courts. There are any number who believe the contract will be quietly dropped for the present.

The Georgia Colonists.

The Wellsville people who expect to go to Georgia will have a distinguished visitor next week. He is Hon. W. L. Glessner, land commissioner of the Georgia Southern railroad, and comes for the purpose of arranging a deal with the colonists, that is, endeavor to suit them in the matter of land. They do not want to go out of the world for a location, and an effort will be made to provide them with the best land in Georgia. The colonists are ready to start as soon as arrangements are completed.

A Strong Team.

The strongest team that ever set foot on the home grounds will meet the Crescents next Saturday. According to Manager Grafton's statement, the team will be composed of East Liverpool players who have been professionally engaged during the season. The McCarrans, Careys, Finch, Lynch, Twaddle, Davis and Smurthwaite will compose the nine. It will be the heaviest team the Crescents have ever met.

The Real Trouble.

A member of the board of trade talked with a NEWS REVIEW representative last night about the reported trouble in their organization. He stated there had been no misunderstanding among the members, but one of their number, whom they had expected would contribute liberally, had not done so, but seemed to think Wellsville could be made to boom by recounting its glories of 40 years ago.

Enjoying the Afternoon.

Annie Murphy, the woman who played sad havoc with the windows in James Griffiths' saloon, in the West End, last week, yesterday afternoon was again making trouble in that part of town. Officer Morgan arrested the woman. She is now cooling off in the city building. Annie is a Wheeling character of about 40 summers, and has long been known there.

Shops Are Shut Down.

The appropriation for the shops for the month has run out, and the shops have a complete shut down. Work will be resumed at the beginning of the month.

The whitewash gang commenced work in the machine shops this morning, and by the time work is resumed this department will present a neat appearance.

The Big Engine.

The big engine for the Cleveland and Pittsburg, which will be in next Tuesday, has a mean weight of 175,000 pounds, and its capacity has never been tested. Some of the boys about the shops say if all the Cleveland and Pittsburg cars were coupled together the monster could move the train.

All May Close.

Another list has been circulated asking all the business houses to close their doors at 6 p. m. All but three of the principal concerns had signified their intention to close up to last evening. Two of the firms who had not signed said they would close if the third party consented.

Do Metals Become Tired?

Various instances are on record where metals, while not showing any appreciable wear, have literally fallen to pieces, and that without any assigned cause. On one occasion a steel rail, after 22 years' continuous service on the Great Northern railway, in England, actually disintegrated under the wheels of a passing train. So complete was the breaking up that scientists thought it worthy of investigation, during which it was determined that the metal had become exhausted and had broken down, just as an overstrained animal might be expected to do. This has led to further inquiry, and scientists are satisfied that metals do become tired out. Fine cracks often appear in steel rails, and it has been supposed that they are caused by the continuous concussion of railway wheels. This, however, seems to be contradicted by the examination of newly made rails, in which similar fine lines occur. The idea that metals become weary, while not altogether a new one, is to an extent a plausible one and under the careful scrutiny of scientific societies will probably be satisfactorily explained and settled.—New York Ledger.

How to Use Blotting Paper.

"It is curious about blotting paper," said Mr. Dipperton, "that it lasts longer if used on one side only. I refer now to the small piece of blotting paper that we pick up and press upon the freshly written lines by rubbing it with the finger tips. Continual rubbing makes the side that is rubbed upon smooth and oily and less absorbent. If we turn the blotter over now and then and get a fresh surface and rub indifferently on either side, we soon get both sides more or less oily, and then it doesn't blot perfectly on either side. It is better to use it always the same side down, so that whatever moisture may be transferred from the finger tips is kept all on one side. Thus used, the blotter will take up ink more satisfactorily and for a longer time than it would if we kept turning it over."—Atlanta Constitution.

Courts of Love.

"Courts of love" were established in the middle ages, when chivalry was at its height and love the serious occupation of life among the higher class of society. The first "court of love" was established in the south of France in the twelfth century and was composed of knights, poets and ladies, and their decisions on subtle questions connected with affairs of the heart were given with great formality.

WELLSVILLE.

MAY NEVER BE SIGNED

That Contract For Heating the
West End School

CONTINUES TO BE ANNOYING

An Injunction Is Almost In Sight—What
the Big Engine Can Do—No Money For
the Shops—A Strong Team—All the News
of Wellsville.

The contract for heating the West
End school will not likely materialize.
It is stated that the trouble already brought out has delayed the signing of the contract, and if it should be signed its enforcement will be hampered for the present by an injunction and the matter will be fought out in the courts. There are any number who believe the contract will be quietly dropped for the present.

The Georgia Colonists.

The Wellsville people who expect to go to Georgia will have a distinguished visitor next week. He is Hon. W. L.
Glessner, land commissioner of the Georgia Southern railroad, and comes for the purpose of arranging a deal with the colonists, that is, endeavor to suit them in the matter of land. They do not want to go out of the world for a location, and an effort will be made to provide them with the best land in Georgia. The colonists are ready to start as soon as arrangements are completed.

A Strong Team.

The strongest team that ever set foot on the home grounds will meet the Crescents next Saturday. According to Manager Grafton's statement, the team will be composed of East Liverpool players who have been professionally engaged during the season. The Mc-Curran, Careys, Finch, Lynch, Twaddle, Davis and Smurthwaite will compose the nine. It will be the heaviest team the Crescents have ever met.

The Real Trouble.

A member of the board of trade talked with a NEWS REVIEW representative last night about the reported trouble in their organization. He stated there had been no misunderstanding among the members, but one of their number, whom they had expected would contribute liberally, had not done so, but seemed to think Wellsville could be made to boom by recounting its glories of 40 years ago.

Enjoying the Afternoon.

Annie Murphy, the woman who played sad havoc with the windows in James Griffiths' saloon, in the West End, last week, yesterday afternoon was again making trouble in that part of town. Officer Morgan arrested the woman. She is now cooling off in the city building. Annie is a Wheeling character of about 40 summers, and has long been known there.

Shops Are Shut Down.

The appropriation for the shops for the month has run out, and the shops have a complete shut down. Work will be resumed at the beginning of the month.

The whitewash gang commenced work in the machine shops this morning, and by the time work is resumed this department will present a neat appearance.

The Big Engine.

The big engine for the Cleveland and Pittsburg, which will be in next Tuesday, has a mean weight of 175,000 pounds, and its capacity has never been tested. Some of the boys about the shops say if all the Cleveland and Pittsburg cars were coupled together the monster could move the train.

All May Close.

Another list has been circulated asking all the business houses to close their doors at 6 p. m. All but three of the principal concerns had signified their intention to close up to last evening.
Two of the firms who had not signed said they would close if the third party consented.

was a broken arm.

Do Metals Become Tired?

Various instances are on record where metals, while not showing any appreciable wear, have literally fallen to pieces, and that without any assigned cause. On one occasion a steel rail, after 22 years' continuous service on the Great Northern railway, in England, actually disintegrated under the wheels of a passing train. So complete was the breaking up that scientists thought it worthy of investigation, during which it was determined that the metal had become exhausted and had broken down, just as an overstrained animal might be expected to do. This has led to further inquiry, and scientists are satisfied that metals do become tired out. Fine cracks often appear in steel rails, and it has been supposed that they are caused by the continuous concussion of railway wheels. This, however, seems to be contradicted by the examination of newly made rails, in which similar fine lines occur. The idea that metals become weary, while not altogether a new one, is to an extent a plausible one and under the careful scrutiny of scientific societies will probably be satisfactorily explained and settled.—New York Ledger.

How to Use Blotting Paper.

"It is curious about blotting paper," said Mr. Dipperton, "that it lasts longer if used on one side only. I refer now to the small piece of blotting paper that we pick up and press upon the freshly written lines by rubbing it with the finger tips. Continual rubbing makes the side that is rubbed upon smooth and oily and less absorbent. If we turn the blotter over now and then and get a fresh surface and rub indifferently on either side, we soon get both sides more or less oily, and then it doesn't blot perfectly on either side. It is better to use it always the same side down, so that whatever moisture may be transferred from the finger tips is kept all on one side. Thus used, the blotter will take up ink more satisfactorily and for a longer time than it would if we kept turning it over."—Atlanta Constitution.

Courts of Love.

"Courts of love" were established in the middle ages, when chivalry was at its height and love the serious occupation of life among the higher class of society. The first "court of love" was established in the south of France in the twelfth century and was composed of knights, poets and ladies, and their decisions on subtle questions connected with affairs of the heart were given with great formality.

TO BUY A PRESIDENT.

The Last Great Scheme of the Silver Trust.

[WRITTEN FOR THE NEWS REVIEW.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The silver Democrats in New York who assert themselves, and desire to fight the battles of the future on the Chicago platform of 1896, are regarded by the leaders of the party organization as the most silly of all creatures. In Ohio the opponent of free silver is held by the regular Democrats to be a traitor, and a foolish person who would be improved by lunacy, and ought to take it as a favor if sent to a lunatic asylum. The New York Democrats of the regular line think it madness to lose the spoils of the great city in argument over so palpable a fraud as free silver has become. In Ohio free silver is the only test of Democracy, unless the advocating of replacing all gold, silver, and silver certificates, national and bank notes, with greenbacks, is pure Democracy. These differences in the party show that the future of it promises to be stormy, and that it stands a chance of being ridiculous. Only in Ohio, however, is the silver and greenback Democrat just at this time aggressive, and just jumping and ripping things, as though he thought the state must go mad because John R. McLean proposes to ride in state to the senate chamber, to sit in deep meditation, and make another "boss and boodle" effort to capture the Ohio legislature.

Mr. Allen O'Myers tells how he shed money in other days, and did not beat John Sherman at last. But Myers says this was done on principle. The outlay in two or three counties was known, and the scientists worked out the sum, and found the total investment to be $243,000; and this did not include the expenses for adding 200 ballots in Cincinnati, and the same number in Columbus—straight Democratic, every one—after the polls were closed and the first tally sheets made out. These things were established in court.

As the senate is divided on the money questions, if Mark Hanna should be defeated and John R. McLean elected to that body, the free silver crowd would have a majority, though there are only two gold Democratic senators—one from Kentucky, and one from Louisiana.

Mr. Bryan is writing private letters to the silver Democrats of New York, begging them to stand up for the platform of 1896. If that Mexican money, and Guatemalan civil service does not prevail, Bryan will cease to be a powerful personage, and while the market rates 36 to 1 gold, Bryan goes on about 16 to 1.

Mr. Edward Atkinson finds, upon investigation in England, that three-fourths of all the silver production in the world is owned in London. That is where the bulk of the stock of our productive silver mines has been placed. Mr. Atkinson does not mean that three-fourths of all the silver mine stock of the world is held in London, for there is a vast deal of poor stuff that has not been marketed in that quarter. British investors got bitten at an early stage of our silver development, and have looked up the mines that are the most profitable. Our silver trust, that tried to buy the government of the United States, is the possession of the British capitalists, by the crucial test of a majority of stock; and that is why the bank of England has been monkeying with silver, agreeing to hold forty millions in the white metal if the French would resume free coinage of silver and back it up with her gold; a thing she will not do, for she cannot afford to do it, for it would amount to paying, from the resources of

A Nation of Medicine Takers.

It is an accepted fact that the American people are the greatest users of medicines of one sort or another on the face of the earth. Imaginary ills make up a large part of man's earthly troubles. Some people need only to read the vivid description of some chronic disease, and they are at once victims to the complaint in question. Many patent medicine venders make use of this peculiarity and lead some people to believe that their tired feeling comes from their blood not being rich and red. Millions would be saved and our general health would be better if we would take medicine only when really needed and then get a remedy specially prepared for the disease with which we are suffering.

As an illustration, when you have sore throat, there can't be any imagination about it. Your throat hurts; probably is covered with white ulcerated spots, and you know you need a remedy. Use good judgment. Get a cure put up for this one purpose. There is such a remedy. Tonsiline is its name, and it is a wonder in its field. Being put up for this one class of diseases, it cures quickly, surely, and many times as if by magic. No family can afford to be without Tonsiline in the home, as it is a certain cure for Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy. Ask your neighbors who have used it. All druggists sell Tonsiline. 25 and 50 cents.

France, the dividends of British silver stockholders in gold. We take it that France has better uses for gold than to pay it for British silver at the rate of 129 cents an ounce, when the market says it is worth less than 60.

Mr. Thomas S. Merrill, the secretary of the American Bi-metallic league, in July, 1896, declared officially that, if one month's profit of the American silver mines were devoted to a fund to elect Bryan, his success was certain, and that the immediate effect would be a rise in the market of 64 cents a silver ounce; and Mr. Merrill added, "all of which will be clear profit." Now, at the rate of production then, this would have amounted to $35,753,280 a year—"all clear profit," mind. Undoubtedly an advance of 64 cents an ounce must have increased the product, and with it the profit. The Bi-metallic league in the silver trust, and Mr. Merrill's official program, therefore, was an offer of additional profit, making a fair estimate of the increased product, of $40,000,000 a year. According to Mr. Edward Atkinson—the highest authority in this country on such matters—the profit of three-fourths would have yielded the British stockholders $30,000,000.

There was a move in Colorado to raise money to do this, but it did not receive a favorable response in England. The Utah mine owners organized and subscribed money for the campaign. The sum named of the result of this movement was $323,000. The trouble was, the bulk of the stock was then, as it is now, held in London, and the British did not realize the money power they might exercise. They stood back astonished, but not convinced. They were actually offered, if they would give up one month's dividends, thirty million dollars a year in gold—according to the calculations and predictions of Mr. Bryan, the silver trust candidate for the presidency. The regular Democratic party fell into the possession of this silver trust, and is its property now. The Chicago convention, whose platform, reaffirmed, is that of the Democracy of Ohio, was under the control of the silver trust, and this trust offered to sell the presidency of the United States in the London market, and pay a bonus of $30,000,000 a year—all for one month's profit of the silver mines. Our silver men meant business, but the British thought, when the United States was offered them cheap for cash, that they had been asked to buy a gold brick.

Whether Ohio shall vote for a silver trust man in the senate, to give advice and consent to the sale of the United States government to the silver mine stockholders in London three-fourths of the good silver stock held there, according to Mr. Edward Atkinson, and the Merrill circular was official—is a plain, pertinent, and absolutely justified question. And there are other questions to be considered in this connection.

William Erlanger showed this morning that he is a persistent and enterprising advertiser. Before the circus parade marched into the city, the inspiring music of drum and fife took many people into the streets under the impression that the great hour of the morning had come. Instead of gorgeous wagons and prancing steeds they saw a colored drum corps, blowing and pounding as though their lives depended on it, while an army of boys with banners announced to the world that Erlanger's great sale was in the height of its glory.

SILVER has advanced in price, but Mr. Bryan is still unable to explain why it does not keep pace with wheat.

THEY want Altgeld to take the stump for Tammany. In Ohio that would mean victory for Tammany's opponents.

MR. CHAPMAN has not yet answered the questions of the union men of Cleveland regarding his sentiment toward trade organizations. Is Mr. Chapman afraid to answer those questions?

THE return of prosperity has ceased to be a matter for argument. Prosperity is here. The people know it, and it will require something more potent than the Democratic press and platform to show any other condition.

THE position of Seth Low regarding the mayoralty of greater New York is to be commended. While there is little reason to believe that he will win, he can at least show to Boss Platt and his crowd that true Republicanism is not ring Republicanism.

OUT in Indianapolis a number of women have banded themselves together for the purpose of convincing other women that they should take off their hats while attending divine services. And why not in East Liverpool? They do it without a murmur when they go to the theater.

IT is scarcely necessary to show that the Democrats have already started on their campaign of misinformation. The eastern papers of Thursday contained the statement that in every school district in Ohio, Democratic orators that day opened the battle. Every school district in Columbiana county knows that statement is untrue.

THE business man or mechanic who expects because prosperity has returned to find gold dollars rolling up every hill in town will find to his sorrow that such expectation will fail of realization. Effort, honest and earnest, is required as in the past to acquire a competency. Competition is keen and leaves no room for the idler. If East Liverpool is to advance all its people must work.

Mr. Thomas S. Merrill, the secretary of the American Bi-metallic league, in July, 1896, declared officially that, if one month's profit of the American silver mines were devoted to a fund to elect Bryan, his success was certain, and that the immediate effect would be a rise in the market of 64 cents a silver ounce; and Mr. Merrill added, "all of which will be clear profit." Now, at the rate of production then, this would have amounted to $35,753,280 a year—"all clear profit," mind. Undoubtedly an advance of 64 cents an ounce must have increased the product, and with it the profit. The Bi-metallic league in the silver trust, and Mr. Merrill's official program, therefore, was an offer of additional profit, making a fair estimate of the increased product, of $40,000,000 a year. According to Mr. Edward Atkinson—the highest authority in this country on such matters—the profit of three-fourths would have yielded the British stockholders $30,000,000.

There was a move in Colorado to raise money to do this, but it did not receive a favorable response in England. The Utah mine owners organized and subscribed money for the campaign. The sum named of the result of this movement was $823,000. The trouble was, the bulk of the stock was then, as it is now, held in London, and the British did not realize the money power they might exercise. They stood back astonished, but not convinced. They were actually offered, if they would give up one month's dividends, thirty million dollars a year in gold—according to the calculations and predictions of Mr. Bryan, the silver trust candidate for the presidency. The regular Democratic party fell into the possession of this silver trust, and is its property now. The Chicago convention, whose platform, reaffirmed, is that of the Democracy of Ohio, was under the control of the silver trust, and this trust offered to sell the presidency of the United States in the London market, and pay a bonus of $30,000,000 a year—all for one month's profit of the silver mines. Our silver men meant business, but the British thought, when the United States was offered them cheap for cash, that they had been asked to buy a gold brick.

Whether Ohio shall vote for a silver trust man in the senate, to give advice and consent to the sale of the United States government to the silver mine stockholders in London three-fourths of the good silver stock held there, according to Mr. Edward Atkinson, and the Merrill circular was official—is a plain, pertinent, and absolutely justified question. And there are other questions to be considered in this connection.

William Erlanger Certainly Has It, and Uses It.

William Erlanger showed this morning that he is a persistent and enterprising advertiser. Before the circus parade marched into the city, the inspiring music of drum and fife took many people into the streets under the impression that the great hour of the morning had come. Instead of gorgeous wagons and prancing steeds they saw a colored drum corps, blowing and pounding as though their lives depended on it, while an army of boys with banners announced to the world that Erlanger's great sale was in the height of its glory.

'Wasn't a Bit Scared.'

A schoolboy, obliged to write a composition, chose for his subject a concert that had recently delighted the people of his town. Following is the result of the lad's effort, and some of his comparisons may be brought to mind if Remenyi is engaged to visit this city:

EMPLOYS A GREAT MANY MEN

Secretary Travis, of the Board of Trade, is Asked to Tell a Capitalist a Number of Things Concerning East Liverpool—In Search of a Location For a Sheet Plant.

Secretary George Travis, of the local board of trade is in receipt of a letter from a western iron firm. The letter asks that they be informed immediately as to the size of this city and if there is any available ground within the corporate limits for the location of a sheet mill. It further states that the plant will be built of new material if its owner decides to locate here, and will employ anywhere from 100 to 250 skilled workmen.

Mr. Travis responded to the letter in a manner that will be sure to attract the attention of the owner of the mill, and an answer or a representative of the company is expected in the city not later than Thursday of next week.

During the past week the board of trade has been unusually busy, and is now working on no less than four new plants that are in the field for a location, and unless the plans go amiss this city will have several new plants in operation within a year.

THE BIG SHOW.

It Brought Scores of People to Town Today.

The Barnum & Bailey show arrived in the city this morning, and the unloading process was witnessed by great crowds of interested people. The parade was a splendid affair, and attracted a great deal of attention. It was impossible to handle the 40 horse team, and that feature was omitted, much to the regret of the management. The performance this afternoon was attended by thousands, and was all that has been claimed for it.

Although almost all the potteries are shut down this afternoon, a great crowd will see the show tonight.

ANOTHER STORY.

New York Thinks Trade Might Be Better.

The New York Crockery Journal does not see trade in the beautiful light observed by some other papers. It says:

"With the advent of cold weather buying became a little more brisk, and there has been a noticeable increase in orders for fine goods. The yellow fever scare in the south lessens the demand for goods in the infected district, but when the scare is over more goods will be wanted than ever. Inquiries for cheap fancy goods still continue, with but few offerings to meet the demand. Staples are moving a little better, but are still slow."

Mercer Lost His Game Yesterday—Carey's Batting Record—Liverpool Is Playing In Rochester This Afternoon—Other Sporting Notes.

Winnie Mercer lost his game yesterday to New York. To the present time has won 20 and lost 23 games.

George Carey in his last five games played with Reading, out of 28 times at bat, made 13 hits.

Alf Shaw caught six games for Syracuse this week, and out of 19 times at bat only made two hits.

The Liverpool team, accompanied by a large number of rooters, left on the noon train for Rochester.

The wheelmen of the West End pottery are getting up a road race from Toronto to this city, and it will take place in the near future. The first prize is a suit of clothes and the second a pair of shoes. Thus far Hugh O'Donnell, W. Calhoun and George Kinsberger have entered, and it is expected every wheelman on the pottery will participate.

The ball game yesterday afternoon between the teams of the Goodwin and West End potteries at West End park resulted in a victory for the former, the score being 18 to 3.

MADE HIS FIRST ARREST

Officer Finley Gave His Prisoner a Ride.

ONE MAN IS NOW IN JAIL

Tim Strain Could Not Collect the Amount of His Fine—A Large Force is on Duty Today—Wellsville and Railroad Officers Are Here.

The town is well supplied with police officers today. In addition to the regular force Mayor Gilbert this morning gave police power to Sanitary Officer Burgess, Pick McMillen and William Moore. Marshal Warren and Officers Mick and Thorne, of Wellsville, are also here, and a number of Cleveland and Pittsburg detectives are moving around in the crowd.

Officer Finley last night made his first arrest. The unfortunate one was Cy Henselman, and he was captured at Broadway and Second street. Henselman was drunk, and making too much noise to suit the officer. He was taken to jail in the patrol, and this morning paid $5.60.

Tim Strain was found at Second and Washington streets last night. He too was drunk and Officer Whan believed he would be safer behind the bars. He was given the customary fine, but not being able to pay was locked up.

Mackell, who has been in jail for some time, was released last night. He left behind him an excellent reputation as janitor.

A FINE ESTABLISHMENT.

Yes, and a Credit to the City of East Liverpool.

The writer had occasion to drop in at Hard's furniture and housefurnishing establishment, Fifth street, yesterday, and had a thorough inspection of the same, and is free to say that this house is a credit to East Liverpool. The late improvements, made as an imperative demand on account of constantly increasing business, are of a first-class character. The ceiling of the lower floor is finished in steel and is very handsome, reflecting credit upon the artisan who did the work, while the ceiling of the second floor is superbly finished in hard wood. The facilities for the display of the splendid stock are all that can be desired, and the stock in itself is such that no one in this city need go to far distant points in order to secure the very best goods manufactured. Hard's business house is truly a credit to East Liverpool.

ADMIRE MERCER.

H. L. Watkins Thinks He is a Great Pitcher.

H. L. Watkins, the gentlemanly press agent of the Barnum & Bailey shows, made friends in the city today when it became known that he knew Winnie Mercer and was among his greatest admirers. Mr. Watkins was at one time manager of the New York club. In speaking of Mercer, he said:

"He is a great pitcher, one of the greatest in fact, and I have often wondered why he is not in better company. Put Mercer with one of the leading teams, and his record of games won would be marvelous. The pitcher does not always lose the games credited to him."

Officer Whan and Special Officer Smith are determined to break up the gang of young boys who play about the passenger station. Last evening Officer Whan dispersed a crowd that were playing on the platform, and if caught again they will be taken to the coop.

A COURTIN CALL.

HIM!

He dressed himself from top to toe
Ter beat the latest fashion.
He gave his boots a extra glow,
His dicker glistered like the snow.
He slicked his hair exactly so,
An all ter indicate "his passion."
He tried his hull three ties afore
He kep the one on that he wore.

HER!

All afternoon she laid abed
Ter make her featur's brighter,
She tried on every gown she hed,
She rasped her nails until they bled,
A dozen times she fuzzed her head,
An put on stuff to make her whiter,
An fussed till she'd a-cried, she said,
But that 'ld make her eyes so red.

THEM!

They sot together in the dark
'thout a light, excep' their spark.
An neither could have told or guessed
What way the other un was dressed!

MINERAL WATERS.

Why and How They Benefit Those That Drink Them.

When a patient reaches a mineral water health resort, he is examined by the resident physician and ordered to drink certain quantities of the water at certain times during the day. These are increased from day to day until the maximum quantity needed is reached. He is ordered to drink one or two glasses upon rising, two or three glasses between breakfast and dinner, the same quantity in the afternoon and a couple of glasses before going to bed. The patient is urged to take it whether he wants it or not. He may say that he is not thirsty, but that makes no difference; he must take it as a medicine. The quantity is increased until we have known 80 glasses per day to be taken.

A part of the benefit derived is because of the rest and change of scene. A part, perhaps, is from the small quantity of the salts and other bases contained in these waters (we are not speaking of cathartic or chalybeate waters), but the benefit from this source is very slight. The secret of the cure is in the quantity of water taken. If the water be pure, free from organic matter, and taken in sufficient quantity, the results will be substantially the same, regardless of the "traces" of lithia and small quantities of sodium chloride and other salts. You can perform these cures at home with the ordinary drinking water, if of good quality, if you will require the patient to take it in the same quantity as at the springs. It is very easy to add lithia if desired, but you must not lose sight of the fact that the quantity of water (not lithia) taken is the important thing. It acts by flooding the kidneys, by washing out the bladder with a copious, bland and dilute urine, by unclogging the liver and clearing the brain. The patient feels better from day to day; he is better. Irritable bladder is relieved, the kidneys act freely—are "washed out"—and many effete substances are carried out with the flood. This clears the way for the liver to act freely and normally, for there is an intimate relation between the liver and kidneys.—New York Ledger.

Elephant Flesh an African Delicacy.

The flesh of the elephant is eaten in its entirety by several of the African tribes. A detail of the process of butchering the animals is not pleasant reading. The tools used are the assagai and hatchet. The rough outer skin is first removed in large sheets. Beneath this is a subcuticle, a pliable membrane, from which the natives make water skins. The elephant yields large quantities of fat, used in cooking the natives' sun dried biltong, or dried strips of the elephant's flesh, and also in the preparation of vegetables. African explorers of the Caucasian race agree that one part of the elephant's carcass, when properly cooked, is a succulent dish that will regale the most delicate taste. This part, very strangely, is the first joint of the leg below the knee, which one would suppose to be the toughest portion of the animal. To prepare the joint a hole three feet deep is dug in the earth, and the sides of it are baked hard by means of large live coals. Most of the coals are then taken out, and the elephant's foot is placed in the rude oven. The hole is then filled with dirt, tightly packed, and a blazing fire is built on top, which is kept replenished for three hours. The foot is thus evenly baked, and when done, instead of strong, tough meat fiber, it is of a gelatinous consistency that may be eaten with a spoon.—Philadelphia Lancet.

Effect of Diet Upon History.

An eminent German scientist, referring to human history, asserts that we may trace the cause of many evils in the dietetic character of the people. The rejection of flesh would give a new direction to human culture and industry. Agriculture would be greatly developed. The numerous diseases now traceable to a flesh diet would disappear, and with them the manifold cruelties of the slaughter house. The expense of living would be greatly reduced, and thus the poorer classes would be elevated.

strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, as in cut No. 3.

The Morgan & Wright single-tube quick-repair tire is guaranteed not porous. This is on account of the way in which it is made. Nearly every rider has heard of tires that "leak like a sieve."

Many tires rot, because water gets into the fabric between the two layers of rubber. The Morgan & Wright fabric is proof against moisture.

Everybody knows how comfortable Morgan & Wright tires are, and yet how seldom they puncture. This is due to the fabric.

Ask any bicycle dealer whether other tires last as long as Morgan & Wright tires. Ask, also, what the Morgan & Wright guarantee means. Morgan & Wright tires are repaired free of charge, at the factory in Chicago or at any of the Morgan & Wright free repair shops, located in the principal cities.

N. B.—When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat, when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.

MADE HIS FIRST ARREST

Officer Finley Gave His Prisoner a Ride.

ONE MAN IS NOW IN JAIL

Tim Strain Could Not Collect the Amount of His Fine—A Large Force Is on Duty Today—Wellsville and Railroad Officers Are Here.

The town is well supplied with police officers today. In addition to the regular force Mayor Gilbert this morning gave police power to Sanitary Officer Burgess, Pick McMillen and William Moore. Marshal Warren and Officers Mick and Thorne, of Wellsville, are also here, and a number of Cleveland and Pittsburg detectives are moving around in the crowd.

Officer Finley last night made his first arrest. The unfortunate one was Cy Henselman, and he was captured at Broadway and Second street. Henselman was drunk, and making too much noise to suit the officer. He was taken to jail in the patrol, and this morning paid $5.60.

Tim Strain was found at Second and Washington streets last night. He too was drunk and Officer Whan believed he would be safer behind the bars. He was given the customary fine, but not being able to pay was locked up.

Mackell, who has been in jail for some time, was released last night. He left behind him an excellent reputation as janitor.

A FINE ESTABLISHMENT.

Yes, and a Credit to the City of East Liverpool.

The writer had occasion to drop in at Hard's furniture and housefurnishing establishment, Fifth street, yesterday, and had a thorough inspection of the same, and is free to say that this house is a credit to East Liverpool. The late improvements, made as an imperative demand on account of constantly increasing business, are of a first-class character. The ceiling of the lower floor is finished in steel and is very handsome, reflecting credit upon the artisan who did the work, while the ceiling of the second floor is superbly finished in hard wood. The facilities for the display of the splendid stock are all that can be desired, and the stock in itself is such that no one in this city need go to far distant points in order to secure the very best goods manufactured. Hard's business house is truly a credit to East Liverpool.

H. L. Watkins, the gentlemanly press agent of the Barnum & Bailey shows, made friends in the city today when it became known that he knew Winnie Mercer and was among his greatest admirers. Mr. Watkins was at one time manager of the New York club. In speaking of Mercer, he said:

"He is a great pitcher, one of the greatest in fact, and I have often wondered why he is not in better company. Put Mercer with one of the leading teams, and his record of games won would be marvelous. The pitcher does not always lose the games credited to him."

MINERAL WATERS.

Why and How They Benefit Those That Drink Them.

When a patient reaches a mineral water health resort, he is examined by the resident physician and ordered to drink certain quantities of the water at certain times during the day. These are increased from day to day until the maximum quantity needed is reached. He is ordered to drink one or two glasses upon rising, two or three glasses between breakfast and dinner, the same quantity in the afternoon and a couple of glasses before going to bed. The patient is urged to take it whether he wants it or not. He may say that he is not thirsty, but that makes no difference; he must take it as a medicine. The quantity is increased until we have known 80 glasses per day to be taken.

A part of the benefit derived is because of the rest and change of scene. A part, perhaps, is from the small quantity of the salts and other bases contained in these waters (we are not speaking of cathartic or chalybeate waters), but the benefit from this source is very slight. The secret of the cure is in the quantity of water taken. If the water be pure, free from organic matter, and taken in sufficient quantity, the results will be substantially the same, regardless of the "traces" of lithia and small quantities of sodium chloride and other salts. You can perform these cures at home with the ordinary drinking water, if of good quality, if you will require the patient to take it in the same quantity as at the springs. It is very easy to add lithia if desired, but you must not lose sight of the fact that the quantity of water (not lithia) taken is the important thing. It acts by flooding the kidneys, by washing out the bladder with a copious, bland and dilute urine, by unclogging the liver and clearing the brain. The patient feels better from day to day; he is better. Irritable bladder is relieved, the kidneys act freely—are "washed out"—and many effete substances are carried out with the flood. This clears the way for the liver to act freely and normally, for there is an intimate relation between the liver and kidneys.—New York Ledger.

TWO MORE DAILY MAILS

A Noticeable Improvement In the Service.

IT WILL BE A CONVENIENCE

The Start Will Be Made Next Monday. Letters to Come In and Depart on the 10:05 a. m. and 4:20 p. m. Accommodations—Has Long Been Needed.

Parties who have often wondered why passenger trains were allowed to enter and leave Liverpool without bringing and taking away mail matter, can now rest themselves in peace. Two additional mails have been added to the local service.

Beginning with next Monday the train which comes from the east at 10:05 o'clock each morning, will take away mail for all local points on the Panhandle between Steubenville and Pittsburgh, and for all towns west of Steubenville. The other convenience deals with the afternoon train which reaches here at 4:20 o'clock. It will bring mail matter from Steubenville and the west. Heretofore this mail has not reached the city until so late in the evening that it could not be delivered until the next day. Postmaster Miskall is being congratulated for his enterprise today.

BOAT BLOCKED A RIVER.

A Big Steamer Made Trouble In a Chicago Waterway.

A block in the Chicago river was caused recently by the steamer City of Bangor, which was starting out for Buffalo with a cargo of 168,000 bushels of corn. This is one of the largest boats which come into the river, being 385 feet long and 45 feet beam and drawing 18 feet 4 inches aft and 17 feet 1 inch forward with its big cargo, so that its keel was in the mud nearly all the time. The vessel grounded opposite Polk street for four hours, keeping the bridge open all that time, and then it grounded over the Washington street tunnel. The Washington street bridge was swung between the masts, so that traffic was carried on until the tugs got the vessel off, but in opening the bridge the floor jammed on the steamer's capstan, and a part of the floor planking had to be cut away before the bridge could be swung clear.

At Randolph street bridge a cable got entangled with the screw, and the bridge had to be kept open for about half an hour while this accident was being remedied. It took the City of Bangor from 7:30 p. m. one day to 2:30 p. m. on the day following to get through the Chicago river from the grain elevator to the lake.—Engineering News.

SUMMER GRIP.

A New Form of Influenza Has Made Its Appearance.

If summer grip is not an affliction of this season's invention, it is at least so prevalent that most persons hear of it now for the first time. What is winning it most attention is the fact that it seems to be remarkably contagious. In some cases it has attacked one member of a family after another and has then communicated itself to visitors and spread in their families.

Physicians who have attended such cases tell their patients that it is a result of the peculiar summer we have had, with its many variations of temperature, and especially to the continued cool weather. Its symptoms are much the same as those of the familiar winter grip, including headache, sore throat, fever and pains in the bones. It makes some people sneeze so much that they think they have fallen victims to hay fever till doctors assure them of the contrary.

One peculiarly unpleasant feature of it seems to be the extreme depression of spirits which accompanies it sometimes. Otherwise its attacks involve only temporary discomfort, and they seem to be generally light in character. But as a new feature of summer life it is not pleasant to contemplate.

Grant and Ochiltree.

President Grant made Colonel Ochiltree a marshal for a certain district in Texas. The colonel, however, did not spend much of his time at home, but went skylarking about the country wherever his fancy led him. This caused so many complaints to be filed against him that at last the president sent for him to come to Washington.

While waiting in the White House reception room for his turn to see the president, Ochiltree began reading a report of the preceding day's races at Saratoga and was surprised to see that a horse bearing his own name, Tom Ochiltree, had carried off second money. When he faced President Grant, the latter said he was sorry to learn that an appointee of his should be in any way derelict in his duty.

"The fact is, Tom, I can hardly pick up a paper that I don't run across your name," said he, "and you seem to be about everywhere except in Texas, where you ought to be."

"General," said the Texan, with a smile as radiant as a California sunset, "if you'll read the papers today you'll find that I carried off second money at Saratoga yesterday and am said to be 'in fine form and faster than ever.' See here."

And he showed the sporting page of the paper in his pocket.

"Am I to blame," he said, "if, while I am faithfully attending to my duties at home, some confounded race horse is disgracing my name about the country?"

The president thought not, and Tom hurried back home and stuck to business—quite awhile.—Chicago Times-Herald

Fox and Hounds.

For a little while the pack follows steadily upon the line, gaining fast. Suddenly a leading hound views 100 yards in front the beaten fox. He raises his voice in frantic delight. The rest of the pack in turn catch sight of their prey, and now, ravening together, dash forward with a crash of voices, with renewed pace and vigor. The fox knows now that the end is very near, yet he still holds his head straight and presses on. The sight, even to the hardened fox hunter, is almost a pathetic one. Here is no friendly ditch, no bush, no shelter of any kind where the hunted creature may set himself up at the last and die at least with his back to the wall. All is bare, inhospitable and open. The pack flashes forward, one hound three lengths ahead of his fellows. He is within five yards of his prey. The fox suddenly faces round with open mouth and bared teeth. The big hound grapples him fiercely, receiving a nasty bite as he does so. In another instant the whole pack are mingled in one wild delirium. The death has come. The huntsman gallops up, jumps off his good chestnut, rescues the dead and now tattered quarry, and, with the field gathered round him, proceeds to conduct the last rites in due form.—Saturday Review.

A Queer Queen.

A captain in a regiment stationed in Natal, when paying his company one day, chanced to give a man a Transvaal half crown, which, as one would naturally expect, bears "the image and superscription" of President Kruger.

The man brought it back to the pay table and said to the captain, "Please, sir, you've given me a bad half crown."

The officer took the coin, and, without looking at it, rang it on the table and then remarked: "It sounds all right, Bagster. What's wrong with it?"

"You luke at it, sir," was the reply.

The captain glanced at the coin, saying: "It's all right, man. It will pass in the canteen."

This apparently satisfied Bagster, who walked off, making the remark, "If you say it's a right, sir, it is a right, but it's the first time I've seen the queen w' whiskers on."—London Answers.

Victoria's Chief Butler.

The salary of Queen Victoria's chief butler, who looks after the beer, wines, and spirits, is £500 a year. This functionary must have a palate of exquisite delicacy, as in him is vested the purchase of the wines drunk by royalty. He is also expected to superintend the decanting of the wines, which he accompanies to the royal table with an air of affectionate solicitude and sees that they are partaken of at the proper moment. The present holder of the office is said to be the finest judge of Rhine wines in the world. Her majesty's chief butler is also responsible for the laying of the table, the actual work being performed by two principal table deckers, with £200 a year each.—Strand Magazine.

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Established Dawson City

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it specially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

"Klondyke Nuggets"

TWO MORE DAILY MAILS

A Noticeable Improvement In the Service.

IT WILL BE A CONVENIENCE

The Start Will Be Made Next Monday. Letters to Come In and Depart on the 10:05 a. m. and 4:20 p. m. Accommodations—Has Long Been Needed.

Parties who have often wondered why passenger trains were allowed to enter and leave Liverpool without bringing and taking away mail matter, can now rest themselves in peace. Two additional mails have been added to the local service.

Beginning with next Monday the train which comes from the east at 10:05 o'clock each morning, will take away mail for all local points on the Panhandle between Steubenville and Pittsburg, and for all towns west of Steubenville. The other convenience deals with the afternoon train which reaches here at 4:20 o'clock. It will bring mail matter from Steubenville and the west. Heretofore this mail has not reached the city until so late in the evening that it could not be delivered until the next day. Postmaster Miskall is being congratulated for his enterprise today.

BOAT BLOCKED A RIVER.

A Big Steamer Made Trouble In a Chicago Waterway.

A block in the Chicago river was caused recently by the steamer City of Bangor, which was starting out for Buffalo, with a cargo of 168,000 bushels of corn. This is one of the largest boats which come into the river, being 385 feet long and 45 feet beam and drawing 18 feet 4 inches aft and 17 feet 1 inch forward with its big cargo, so that its keel was in the mud nearly all the time. The vessel grounded opposite Polk street for four hours, keeping the bridge open all that time, and then it grounded over the Washington street tunnel. The Washington street bridge was swung between the masts, so that traffic was carried on until the tugs got the vessel off, but in opening the bridge the floor jammed on the steamer's capstan, and a part of the floor planking had to be cut away before the bridge could be swung clear.

At Randolph street bridge a cable got entangled with the screw, and the bridge had to be kept open for about half an hour while this accident was being remedied. It took the City of Bangor from 7:30 p. m. one day to 2:30 p. m. on the day following to get through the Chicago river from the grain elevator to the lake.—Engineering News.

SUMMER GRIP.

A New Form of Influenza Has Made Its Appearance.

If summer grip is not an affliction of this season's invention, it is at least so prevalent that most persons hear of it now for the first time. What is winning it most attention is the fact that it seems to be remarkably contagious. In some cases it has attacked one member of a family after another and has then communicated itself to visitors and spread in their families.

Physicians who have attended such cases tell their patients that it is a result of the peculiar summer we have had, with its many variations of temperature, and especially to the continued cool weather. Its symptoms are much the same as those of the familiar winter grip, including headache, sore throat, fever and pains in the bones. It makes some people sneeze so much that they think they have fallen victims to hay fever till doctors assure them of the contrary.

One peculiarly unpleasant feature of it seems to be the extreme depression of spirits which accompanies it sometimes. Otherwise its attacks involve only temporary discomfort, and they seem to be generally light in character. But as a new feature of summer life it is not pleasant to contemplate.

Remenyi's violin weeps.

On the River.

The river is still tumbling, and during the last two days has fallen so much that the marks in the channel at this port registered 1.4 feet.

Heavy rains are reported at the headwaters of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, and a slight rise is expected in the Ohio within the next few days.

Two Fights.

During the week there has been no less than two prize fights pulled off on the Virginia side. The fights were arranged in this city, and when the principals arrived on the other side the amusement commenced. The fights were held in the open air and only a few spectators were present.

Grant and Ochiltree.

President Grant made Colonel Ochiltree a marshal for a certain district in Texas. The colonel, however, did not spend much of his time at home, but went skylarking about the country wherever his fancy led him. This caused so many complaints to be filed against him that at last the president sent for him to come to Washington.

While waiting in the White House reception room for his turn to see the president, Ochiltree began reading a report of the preceding day's races at Saratoga and was surprised to see that a horse bearing his own name, Tom Ochiltree, had carried off second money. When he faced President Grant, the latter said he was sorry to learn that an appointee of his should be in any way derelict in his duty.

"The fact is, Tom, I can hardly pick up a paper that I don't run across your name," said he, "and you seem to be about everywhere except in Texas, where you ought to be."

"General," said the Texan, with a smile as radiant as a California sunset, "if you'll read the papers today you'll find that I carried off second money at Saratoga yesterday and am said to be in fine form and faster than ever." See here.

And he showed the sporting page of the paper in his pocket.

"Am I to blame," he said, "if, while I am faithfully attending to my duties at home, some confounded race horse is disgracing my name about the country?"

The president thought not, and Tom hurried back home and stuck to business—quite awhile.—Chicago Times-Herald

Fox and Hounds.

For a little way the pack follows steadily upon the line, gaining fast. Suddenly a leading bound views 100 yards in front the beaten fox. He raises his voice in frantic delight. The rest of the pack in turn catch sight of their prey, and now, ravening together, dash forward with a crash of voices, with renewed pace and vigor. The fox knows now that the end is very near, yet he still holds his head straight and presses on. The sight, even to the hardened fox hunter, is almost a pathetic one. Here is no friendly ditch, no bush, no shelter of any kind where the hunted creature may set himself up at the last and die at least with his back to the wall. All is bare, inhospitable and open.
